Is there a trick to leasing photovoltaic panels on the roof

Overview

Solar leasing offers zero down options for homeowners who want to go solar without the upfront investment of purchasing a solar panel system. Leasing companies handle all maintenance, repairs, and monitoring, making it a hassle-free option for homeowners who prefer. You get solar panels on your roof with no money down, someone else handles any maintenance that might arise, and you start saving on your electric bills from day one. Sounds pretty straightforward—and in many ways, it is. You don't buy the system or own anything installed on your property. During the term of the contract, you're entitled to use all the power the system produces. You'll probably buy less power from your electricity. A solar lease is a long-term rental agreement—usually 20 to 25 years—for solar panels that sit on your roof. “By leasing solar, Americans can avoid upfront costs and could start saving immediately,” says Wyatt Semanek, Public Relations Manager at Sunrun, a U.
