Photovoltaic panel theft case opens in court

Overview

NEW YORK, NY – Today the New York City Department of Consumer and Worker Protection (DCWP) announced the filing of a landmark lawsuit against Radiant Solar, a solar panel installation company that defrauded New Yorkers seeking a source of affordable renewable energy for their homes. I'm Neil Prevost, attorney at law, here to share an important update about our firm and the solar loan industry. As of August 2025, we've crossed a major milestone: over 3,000 active cases. A copy of the Court's order is available in the Court Documents section. In that light, five solar panel companies have been accused of deceptive practices in a new lawsuit filed by the Legal Aid Society of New York City. 10 On Your Side has been investigating Pink Energy, the company formerly known as Power Home Solar, for more than a year. Now, dozens of the company's customers are part of a class. In 2022, our firm filed a nationwide class-action suit against Generac Power Systems, alleging that Generac manufactured a defective component that significantly impedes energy production from residential solar energy systems. We filed a nationwide class-action lawsuit against Better Earth, Inc.
